

COME JOIN OUR TEAM AT THE JOSHUA SCHOOL!

"The Joshua School is committed to helping each individual with Autism Spectrum Disorder and Developmental Disabilities attain the highest quality of life, valuing each unique mind, body, and spirit."

The Company:

The Joshua School Boulder campus serves over 15 students. We are a Colorado Department of Education approved facility school and partner closely with over six local school districts to provide intensive services for our students. Our nationally recognized approach has achieved superior results through our structured environments, teaching strategies based on behavioral intervention, and data collection. Using Applied Behavior Analysis, we identify, with families and teams, the needs of each student to create an independent and fulfilling life. These might include social skills, communication and language, academics, daily living and community skills, vocational skills and more.

We believe that every child is smart, competent, and whole exactly as he or she is, and dignity is the birthright of every human being. We believe our children and their families have a right to aspire to a life of their choosing.

The Position:

The Instructional Assistants primary role is to supervise students and attend to their educational needs, physical/emotional health, and safety while recognizing their worth, affirming their abilities, and striving to promote dignity in all relationships. This involves collaboration with directors, specialists (BCBAs, Speech Language Pathologist, and Occupational Therapist), and Lead Teachers for creation and implementation of Individualized Education Programs, and oversight of student programs related to all goals and objectives. Other key responsibilities include:

- Case management of assigned student.
- Attend and actively participate in weekly clinical meetings.
- Transport/accompany students in the community and implement community-based instruction.
- Be a role model for students and create a positive culture with co-workers by emulating professional attitude, language, and communication.
- Complete certification and stay current in physical and verbal de-escalation strategies, and support during student crisis situations as necessary.

The Location:

This position is at The Joshua School's Boulder campus. Boulder is located in the foothills of the Rocky Mountains and is the gateway to a nature lover's playground with all the amenities of a city lover's metropolis.

Qualifications:

- One year experience working with individuals with developmental disabilities and basic knowledge of Applied Behavior Analysis.
- High school diploma or equivalent.
- Minimum age of 21.
